

Christ, from whom all blessings flow

Charles Wesley (1707–1788)

Orlando Gibbons (1583–1625)

Canterbury 77 77

1. Christ, from whom all bless - ings flow, per - fect - ing the saints be - low,
2. Join us, in one spi - rit join, let us still re - ceive of thine;
3. Move and ac - tu - ate and guide, di - verse gifts to each di - vide;
4. Ne - ver from thy ser - vice move, need - ful to each oth - er prove;
5. Ma - ny are we now, and one, we who Je - sus have put on;
6. Love, like death, hath all des - troyed, ren - dered all dis - tinc - tions void;

Hear us, who thy na - ture share, who thy mys - tic bo - dy are.
Still for more on thee we call, thou who fill - est all in all.
Placed ac - cord - ing to thy will, let us all our work ful - fill;
Use the grace on each be - stowed, tem - pered by the art of God.
There is nei - ther bond nor free, male nor fe - male, Lord, in thee.
Names and sects and par - ties fall; thou, O Christ, art all in all!
