

Day after day I sought the Lord

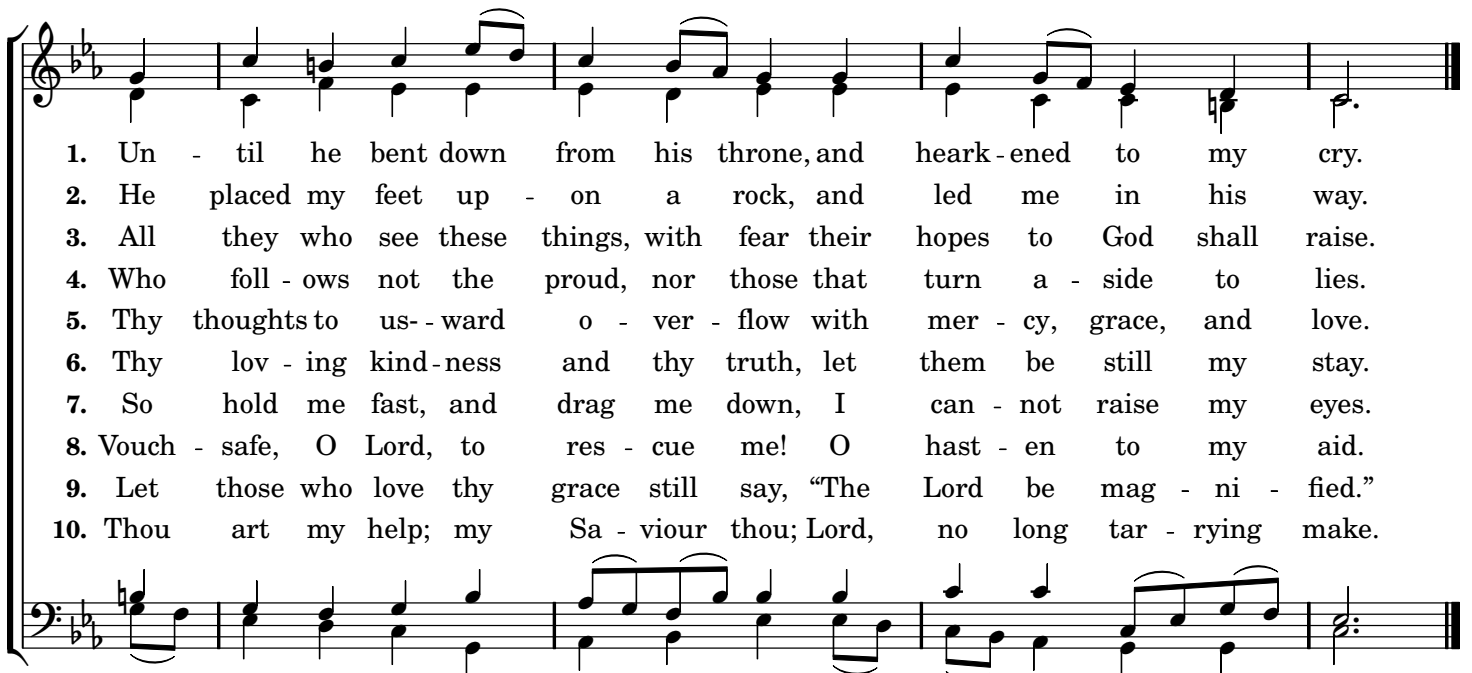

Julius C. Hare (1795-1855)

William Tans'ur (1700-1783)

Bangor CM

1. Day af - ter day I sought the Lord, and wait - ed pa - tient - ly;
2. He drew me from the fear - ful pit, and from the mi - ry clay;
3. He taught my soul a new - - made song, a song of ho - ly praise,
4. Most bless - èd is the man whose hope up - on the Lord re - lies;
5. O Lord, what won - ders hast thou wrought, all num - ber far a - bove!
6. Show forth thy mer - cy, gra - cious Lord; O take it not a - way!
7. For count - less sor - rows hem me round; and my in - i - qui - ties
8. My hairs in num - ber they sur - pass; hence is my heart dis - mayed;
9. Let those who seek thee faith - ful - ly in peace and joy a - bide;
10. Poor am I, and in need; yet God care of my soul doth take.

1. Un - til he bent down from his throne, and heark - ened to my cry.
2. He placed my feet up - on a rock, and led me in his way.
3. All they who see these things, with fear their hopes to God shall raise.
4. Who foll - ows not the proud, nor those that turn a - side to lies.
5. Thy thoughts to us - - ward o - ver - flow with mer - cy, grace, and love.
6. Thy lov - ing kind - ness and thy truth, let them be still my stay.
7. So hold me fast, and drag me down, I can - not raise my eyes.
8. Vouch - safe, O Lord, to res - cue me! O hast - en to my aid.
9. Let those who love thy grace still say, "The Lord be mag - ni - fied."
10. Thou art my help; my Sa - viour thou; Lord, no long tar - rying make.
